

Enhance employee productivity

Why you need a modern booking tool

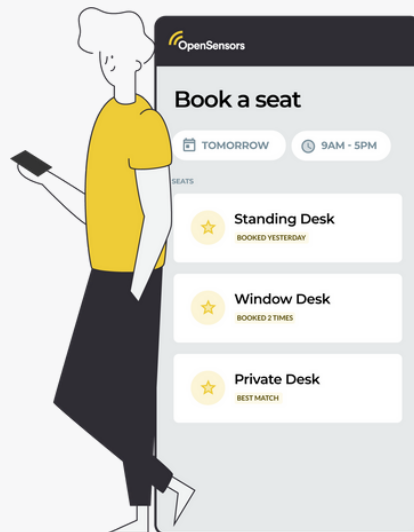

Fostering productivity in the workplace

Employees are engaging more critically with the workplace. Frustrations from the inability to find space to do their job will impact productivity and retention.

Intelligent desk management for hybrid working

Empower employees to access the office, how and when they need too.

Remove the stress and administrative burden with auto check in and release of spaces.

1

Plan working week to the office

Help employees stay productive by quickly finding and booking the right workspaces they need to do their job.

2

Avoid wasted commute time to the office

Immediate visibility of available workspaces at a glance to reduce frustration and peak time travel.

3

Accommodate flexible work patterns

Adapt work policies as work patterns change with data to steer decision making.

4

Create a seamless office experience

Enable employees to easily find, book and access workspaces with minimal disruption, anytime, anywhere.
